

Shakespeare on the Saskatchewan Medieval Feasts

Eat, Drink and Be Merry

Come on out and enjoy the grog, grub, and gathering that has become one of the festival's most popular events. The evening begins at 5:30pm with melodious musings of renaissance and contemporary music. A cash bar is available.

The big feast will commence at 6:00pm featuring fantastic food by Rembrandt's Dining Room. Medieval entertainment will round off the feast, and then it is off to enjoy a performance in the big Festival Tent.

Tickets $75.00 each

Sunday July 11, 2010

Featuring The Merry Wives of Windsor

Sunday July 18, 2010

Featuring The Merchant of Venice

MEDIEVAL FEAST MENU

Watermelon salad with black olive and feta on endive

Various breads

Platter consisting of:

Whole roasted chicken

Whole Rainbow Trout

Pork side ribs

Oven roasted potatoes

Corn on the cob

Individual baked apple dumplings

Coffee and tea